Rabbi to Discuss Chessman Case at Brotherhood Service Tomorrow

A service devoted to brotherhood will be presented at Temple Menorah of the South Bay, 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach, 8:30 p.m. tomorrow night. "Brotherhood Month is celebrated every February in the hope that hatred and bigotry will thereby be lessened among the people of our land which is dedicated to freedom and justice for all men," said Rabbi Henri Front, spiritual leader of the Temple. He added, "despite persistent episodes of injustice done in the name of patriotism and religion, all truly religious persons and all those truly concerned with patriotism are uniting for promotion of amity and concord." The Choir of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church of Redondo Beach will join the Temple Choir at the service.

The sermon tomorrow night will be "Dachau to Death Row," an analysis of capital punishment prompted by the Chessman case. The Rabbi will comment on what the holy scriptures and the Judeo-Christian heritage has to say about capital punishment.

Saturday morning at 9:30 students in grades four through nine of the Temple Menorah Religious School will host Sunday School children of the South Bay Christian Church. A special cantata and service has been written for the occasion.

Greek Orthodox to Move March 6

St. Katherine Greek Orthodox Church will move March 6 to 141 S. Pacific Ave., Redondo Beach.

Dr. Ernest Donlou, president said that these quarters will be used for all Orthodox services.

The divine liturgy and Sunday-school classes start at 10:30 a.m. Sundays.

The church, established two years, has purchased a site on Nob Hill, in Redondo Beach.

Montgomery Parents to Hear Success Talk

"The Will to Succeed" is the theme chosen by the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. McCarthy for his lecture before the parent-faculty organization meeting of Bishop Montgomery School, Sunday at 2 p.m. in the school library.

Monsignor McCarthy was recently appointed pastor of Nativity Parish.
